90 Second Newbery (4/3)

- Your video should be 90 seconds or less. (Okay, okay: If it's two minutes long but absolute genius, they'll bend the rules for you. But try to keep them short.)
- Your video has to be about the entire Newbery award-winning (or Newbery honor-winning) book.
- Just to be clear: This is a book trailer. We are looking for full-on dramatizations, with mostly child actors, that manage to tell the entire story of a book in a ridiculously short amount of time.
- 4. Your video must condense the plot of the book in 90 seconds or less. Exceptions will be made for something really ingeniously bonkers, but it has to be related to a Newbery winning book.
