Pretend that you are an American colonist in the early 1700s. Write a postcard to a friend in Europe. Describe the colony you have settled in and your reasons for doing so. Write the message on one side of the postcard, and sketch a picture on the other side. Your postcard must contain

- a proper salutation and closing.
- three reasons you moved to the colony.
- at least two reasons why you did not settle in the two other regions.
- writing that is free of spelling and grammatical errors.
- a colorful image depicting at least one of the colony's best features.
