

EVEN MORE JOBS FOR COMMAS

Name:

SEPARATING EQUALLY IMPORTANT ADJECTIVES, SENTENCE ELEMENTS, ITEMS IN ADDRESSES, AND DATES:

Use commas, semicolons, and endmarks to correctly punctuate the sentences below.

1. Exhausted from sitting rather than from physical exertion Ling sank into the soft green easy chair.
2. The Founders Day sale runs December 26 1997 through January 8 1998.
3. Suddenly the rope tore and the tire swing plummeted to the ground.
4. We're sorry Tom that you were inconvenienced and we'd like to make it up to you.
5. The new address if I'm remembering correctly is 1140 Westown Cole Illinois
6. When I travel I pack my toothbrush a hairbrush a shoe brush and a clothes brush.
7. Yes the sales department met their monthly goal over $200,000 in receipts they're celebrating right now!
8. Bernice was born November 3 1928 and Eugene was born January 17 1929—Holy old ladies Batman
9. The gentleman living at 547 35th Street St. Louis Missouri collects human toes pickling crocks and colored glass jars
10. On July 4 our family likes to protest outside 1600 Pennsylvania Avenue Washington DC

ANGRY DOODLE SPACE: