ARTISTIC REPRESENTATION OF LITERATURE

Create covers for the assigned reading...both front and back

- the cover needs to have an original title
 - the title should represent the assigned reading in a unique way
 - not the entire novel...just the chapters or pages for the discussion
- the cover needs to have a dominant image
 - the image(s) should represent the assigned reading in a new and creative way—keep it simple but nice
 - the artwork should reflect thirty or more minutes of sustained effort
 - the image(s) should reveal a significant aspect of the novel
- the cover needs to have a tag line
 - the tag line is a short, catchy phrase that should represent the assigned reading in a unique way
- the “back” cover needs to have a teaser paragraph
 - the teaser should represent the breadth of the assigned reading in a unique way to catch a potential reader’s attention and make them want to read the material
 - you need to write at least 5-6 good sentences

all titles, images, tag lines, and teaser paragraphs must be original and not already created for the reading or a chapter of the reading

Teaser:

The advertisement appeared suddenly on the Internet and in newspapers across the planet. "If you have the spirit of adventure and are willing to work, come sail with us." Do you have the qualifications necessary? If so, Safespace will take you on the journey of a lifetime.

Varce has been placed in command of the Intergalactic Federation starship Tiltha. His mission, decimate the planet's population, technology, and culture, leaving Earth with only a few scattered survivors. Federation missions have been to Earth before destroying advancing civilizations like Atlantis and Lemuria.

Why is Earth such a special planet, and its existence and location a carefully hidden secret? Why are people on Earth unique from all the other sentient life forms that inhabit the billions of star systems that the Intergalactic Federation ruthlessly rules? Will Varce follow his orders to destroy Earth, or his heart initiating a plan called Safespace?

If Safespace is successful, Earth and its people will survive and discover who they really are, and why the Earth is the key to the Federation's existence.

Safespace is a science fiction adventure novel filled with mystery, romance, action, hope, and personal discovery. The question is, "Are you ready for it?"

Robert Miles is a television and motion picture writer and producer with thirty years experience. He has written and published numerous articles, and non-fiction stories.

An avid adventurer, Robert designed and built four sailing vessels, cruised to Hawaii, Baja Mexico, and Honduras.

Safespace is a manifestation of his personal extraterrestrial experience.
