

Vocabulary

#10

accolade (n) approving or praising mention

ac(t) = to do
co = together

awry (adv)

- 1. crooked(ly); uneven(ly);
- 2. (adj) wrong, askew

compliant (adj) yielding;
obedient

com = together

discern (v) to distinguish or discriminate

dis = away

We must learn to
discern
what is true
and what is not true.

expedite (v) speed up

ex = out

ped = foot or child

grandiose (adj)

extravagant; flamboyant

DELUSIONS OF GRANDEUR

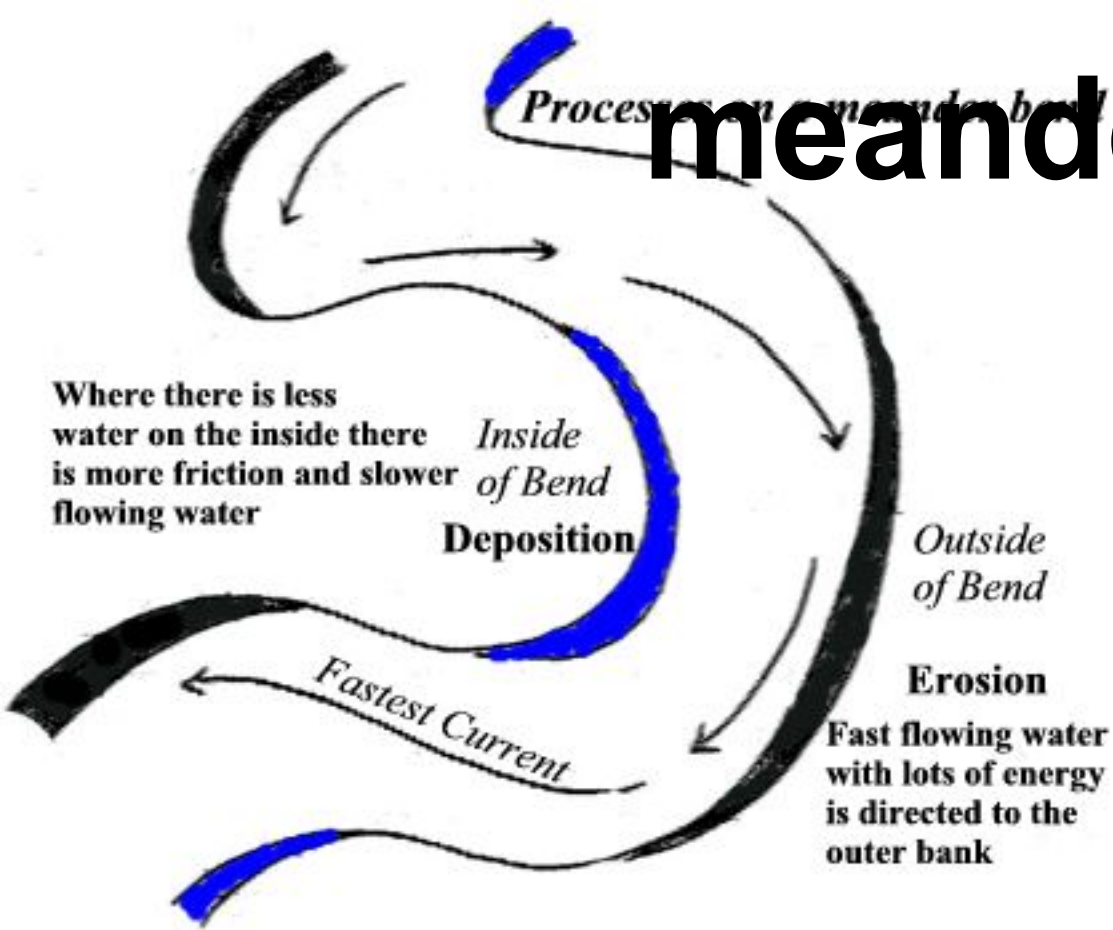

they make me feel better about myself

infer (v) form an opinion;
conclude

WriteAtHome.com
in = in or not
fer = carry

meander (v)

wind on a course; go
aimlessly

perjury (n) the practice of lying

per = through
jur = swear

*You say you're in for perjury, eh?
-- Why should I believe that?*

rebuff (n) an abrupt, blunt refusal

re = again

solicit (v) ask; seek

SOLICIT

Beg. Woo. Hook. Court. Accost.
Do any of these to approach someone?
You 'solicit' them basically!

tumult (n)
great commotion or
agitation

agrarian (n) pro farmer or an agricultural way of life

ag = to do

discrimination (n)
treating people differently

#147
TUESDAY
OCTOBER 19TH
2010

dis = away
tion = act or state

dissolve (v)
break up

dis = away solv = loosen

fugitive (n)
a person who flees or tries to escape

fug = flee

immigrant (n)

THE FIRST ILLEGAL IMMIGRANTS

someone settling in a new country

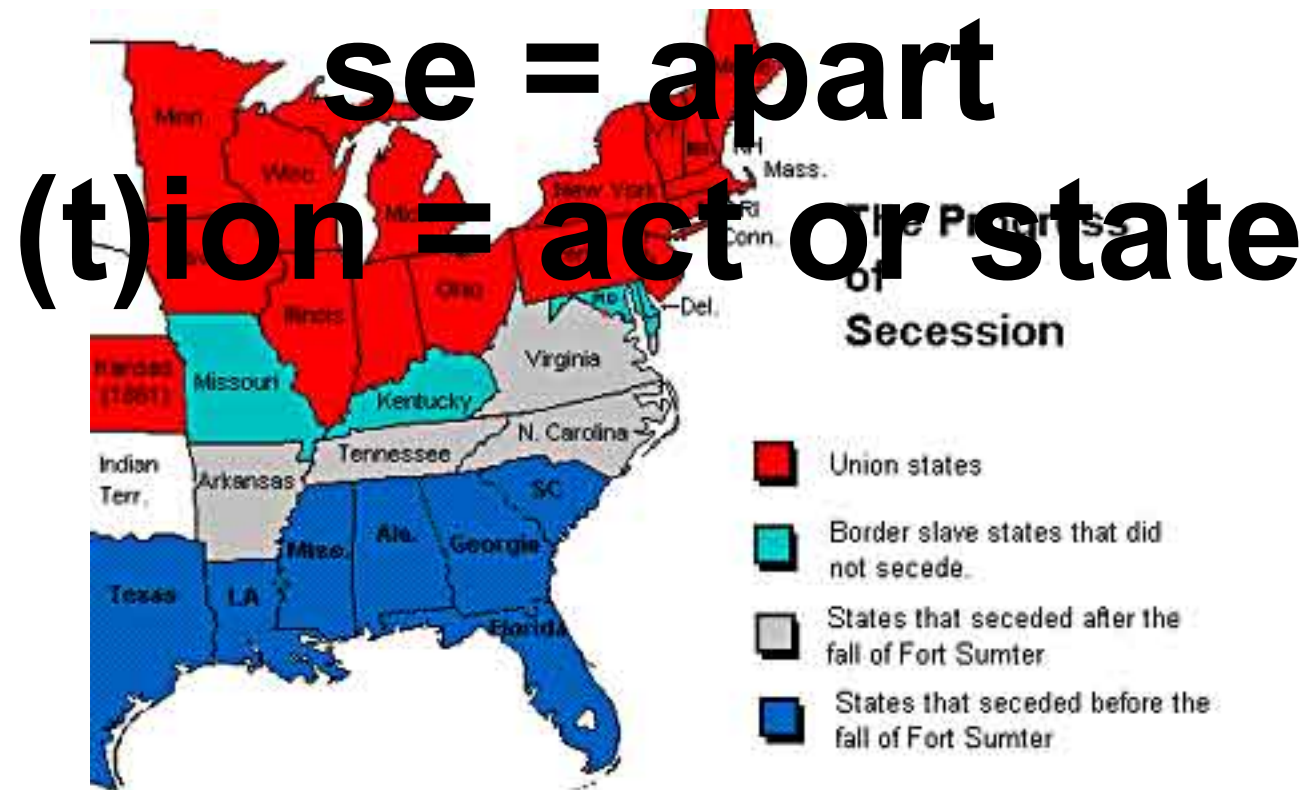

im = not
migr = wander

A painting depicting a person in a dark, crouched position, looking down, with a large, textured, yellow and blue background. The person is wearing a dark shirt and light-colored pants. The background is composed of large, textured, yellow and blue shapes, possibly representing a landscape or a crowd. The overall mood is somber and oppressive.

oppression (n)
the feeling of being
weighed down or held back by severe & unfair force

(t)ion = act or state

secession (n)
the act of withdrawing from an organization or
alliance

segregation (n)
social separation of groups of people, especially by race

se = apart
greg = group
tion = act or state