The Westing Game Ch 13

Choose ONE of the following questions to answer in 4-6 sentences. Base your answer off of what your read last night – not the movie, or any pre-existing knowledge of the plot.

- 1. After the second bomb in Chapter 13, Angela and Theo have a conversation in which they discuss their future plans. What did Theo and Angela confide in with each other? What do we learn about them here? Why couldn't Angela answer Theo's question?
- 2. In the scene where Sydelle is being carried away from the restaurant in an ambulance, why wouldn't she want attention for this real injury? What's different about this episode than her "disease" that requires crutches?

3. So far, two bombs have gone off - one in the Theodorakis Coffee Shop, and one in Hoo's Chinese Restaurant. At the end of Chapter 13, we learn that the third bomb will be in the Wexler's apartment. Why do you think these specific locations are being targeted? Who do you think the bomber is? Why?

Turn me over!

Plot Thoughts:
-The plot of The Westing Game can be somewhat confusing at times. So far, we've hit the exposition and the INITIAL rising action. Below, you should summarize what YOU think the exposition and the INITIAL rising action of The Westing Game are, in your own words.
-The exposition summary needs to include the characters, setting, and conflict that are revealed
-The rising action should provide information on important details, description, and events.
Exposition:

Rising Actions:	